

GLOSSIER

233 Spring Street, New York, NY

Description

Ryan Soames Engineering was retained to provide a design/build approach for the full MEP-FP design for the 9,500 rentable square feet Glossier office expansion constructed at 233 Spring Street in New York City. The space included large pantry conference rooms, bathrooms, reception, and open work space with breakout areas.

Architect

Unispace